to demonstrate (1) that he would be irreparably prejudiced if the motion is resolved according to the normal briefing schedule and (2) that he is without fault in creating the crisis necessitating emergency relief, or at the very least, that the crisis resulted from excusable neglect. (See #242, at 1). Based on this, the Court determined that the motion should be addressed according to the Court's standard briefing schedule. Id. at 2. However, after speaking with the Probation Office, the Court has determined that Defendant was released from custody on April 16, 2024.
Consequently, the Court finds this motion moot.
II. Conclusion
Accordingly, IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Defendant's Petition for Writ of Habeas Corpus Ad Testificandum (#221) and Emergency Motion for Judicial Recommendation
Pursuant to 18 U.S.C. §§ 3621(b)(4) and 3624 (#241) are DISMISSED as MOOT .
